

Left to Right: Unknown Woman, Sarah Blaylock Harr, T.J. Harr, Reuben Blaylock -- father of Sarah Harr

Sarah Elizabeth Blaylock Harr Obituary

MRS. SARAH HARR

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Harr, widely known Sullivan county woman, died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning at her home near Blountville.

She is survived by her husband, T. J. Harr; two sons, Jess Harr, of Kingsport, and Noah Harr, of Indian Springs; two daughters, Mrs. Luella Ottinger, of Greene county, Tenn., and Mrs. Ida May Shipley, of Kingsport; and two brothers, Joseph Blaylock, of Bristol, and A. P. Swink, of Johnson City; seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Immanuel Lutheran church, near Blountville, in which Mrs. Harr had long been an active worker.

The Rev. W. D. Wise, the Rev. W. G. Cobb, and the Rev. W. H. Roof will be in charge.

Interment will be in the Immanuel cemetery.

Pallbearers will be the following nephews: B. R. Harr, C. J. Harr, C. F. Harr, R. C. Harr, F. M. Harr, and H. E. Harr.

Honorary pallbearers: J. C. Keys, S. R. Morrell, Dr. E. M. Corns, Dr. S. R. McDowell, C. E. Harr, R. S. Cox, S. L. Cole, O. F. Shipley, Rhea Anderson, Bob Hauk, C. H. Massengill, C. W. Starbuck, and T. G. Anderson.

Members of the Sunday school class of the Immanuel Lutheran church will serve as flower bearers.

SEE PAGE MEETING